9. [REDACTED] Miss Ridgway, in the office of Representative Barratt O'Hara, telephoned to see if she could secure for a constituent a copy of the CIA report commonly known as the Fiat report. I advised her that this report was included verbatim in a House Banking and Currency Committee report along with their own discussion of this situation which was released a week or so ago. I suggested that this would be of more assistance to the Congressman's constituent. She agreed.
